

Quality Policy

ADS Laser Cutting Ltd are a well-established company using the very latest TRUMPF CO2 and fibre laser cutting and press break technologies, as well as on site fabrication, welding and powder coating in house.

ADS Laser Cutting Ltd is committed to achieving the highest standards of workmanship. The company employ a skilled workforce who are continually being trained both in new technologies but also in working safely.

The Directors have developed a quality management system which complies with the requirement of ISO 9001:2015. The Quality system is subject to regular audit and review.

The company have set out a strategic direction of continual improvement which will encourage best practice and will ensure a competitive advantage in the market place providing only the highest levels of customer satisfaction.

The company regularly review their objectives for continual improvement within the framework of their management review meetings.

D. Keates

Managing Director

13.04.18